CONTINGENT PROCESSING OPTIONS (To be Completed by the Borrower)

Eligibility for the Parent PLUS Loan is contingent on a successful credit check. In the event that your (the borrower's) credit is not approved you have several options available to you. Please inform us of how you wish to proceed in the event your credit is denied:

- Appeal*: I can document extenuating circumstances related to the adverse credit information
- Endorsement*: I will have someone who does not have adverse credit endorse the loan. I understand this person will be responsible to repay the loan if I am unable to make payments.
- Additional Unsubsidized Loan: The student may borrow additional Unsubsidized Direct Loan funds ($4,000 for 1st and 2nd year students, $5000 for 3rd and 4th year students). These additional funds are only available to the student if the PLUS Loan is denied due to an adverse credit check.

*If you are granted PLUS Loan funds as a result of an appeal or endorsement you must complete PLUS Loan Counseling at www.studentloans.gov before funds can be disbursed.
