ROOMMATE QUESTIONS:

If you plan on playing a sport at NCU, which sport(s)? _____

- If available, I'd like to room with a teammate
- If available, I'd like to room with an athlete, but not someone from my team
- I prefer to live with a non-athlete
- I have no preference whether my roommate is an athlete or not.

Which best describes your preferred study environment?

- The quieter the better
- Background noise doesn't bother me
- As long as I have headphones, I can study in any environment
- Music/TV/Video Games do not bother me, no matter the volume
- I like to study with people around
- I thrive on all kinds of noise and distractions

The bulk of my studying occurs in the:

- Morning
- Afternoon
- Evening
- Late evening hours

How neat are you?

- Very neat, I cannot stand any messes/clutter
- I do not like clutter, but I can deal with some of it
- I am easy going, I'll clean up once a week
- I do not clean unless I am forced to
- I cannot remember the last time I saw the top of my dresser

How close would you like to be with your roommate?

- It doesn't matter to me if I am close with my roommate
- Be respectful and peacefully co-exist
- Be friends
- Hang out in the same friend group
- Be best friends

What role does your faith play in your decision to attend NCU?

- I chose NCU for other reasons
- I consider myself spiritual, but am not part of any specific religious group, so NCU's Christian faith is not particularly important to me
- I am a person of faith or come from a faith background, so NCU's Christian focus was one factor that helped me to choose it
- My faith is one of several important priorities in my college decision
- My faith is the primary driving force in my life and why I came to NCU

When conflict arises what do you tend to?

- I keep problems to myself and trust that others will come to see the problem on their own.
- I will hint at what bothers me and give the other person space to ask if there is a problem.
- I find a time to bring all my concerns out in the open so that the issues can be resolved.
- I address the issue directly so that there is no miscommunication.

Do you consider yourself a:

- Heavy Sleeper: light, noise, music, ringing of phones doesn't bother me
- Light Sleeper: I wake up very easily
- Somewhere in between: I am ok with some light, music, fan etc, but loud noises and bright lights will wake me up.

You have a test tomorrow. Do you:

- Stay up late to study
- Wake up early to study

What best describes what you would like your room/apartment to be?

- A quiet space for me and my roommate
- Somewhere that a few friends feel comfortable hanging out
- The 'living room' of the hall where everyone is welcome

Choose the top 3 concerns you would have about your future roommate:
